CITY MAY GET FEDERAL AID FOR NEEDY

MAYOR READS LETTER FROM SENATOR ROBERT M.
LA-FOLLETTE

ASKS FOR THE FACTS

Big Four Employes Contributing Each Month Toward Relief Fund

A possibility that Kankakee and other cities of the state may be relieved of half of the cost of caring for the suffering among the unemployed this winter and in the future was revealed in a letter received by Mayor Robert M. LaFollette of Wisconsin yesterday. The letter was read at the meeting of the Community Welfare Committee last evening.

Senator LaFollette stated that he had called other legislators at Washington and that city and county governments should be relieved of their present burden in this respect. He is chairman of the committee on manufacturing and, in return for the proposed assistance, urges that certain information be forwarded to him at once. This includes an estimate of the number of unemployed, the increase over last year and the increase in unemployed over two years ago. He also desires accurate data on the amount of private relief work being done here.

The committee voted to furnish the information and delegated this duty to N. J. Ziemer, secretary of the committee of Commerce, with instructions to act at once.

It was stated that the proposal to arrange a benefit basketball game at the Armory in January between the Tulsa, Okla. Eagles and the Chicago Bruins has been referred to a committee consisting of J. A. Ennis, B. E. Coates and Sidney Herbert. B. E. Ferris, president of the general relief committee, stated that the three men mentioned above will confer with the officials of the Baron-Huot Oil company which is sponsoring the movement for the game.

A check for $51.50 was received from the Public Gas and Oil company. The amount represents money given by the company at the rate of a half a cent a gallon deducted from the sale price of every gallon of gasoline sold at their West avenue filling station for a period of one week.

$16,000 Pledged
A report of the finance committee was read and showed a total of $16,000 pledged for the relief movement to date. The sum of $3,257 in pledges has already been paid in and the disbursements to date are $544. It is urged that all who have signed pledges remit within the next ten days.

Mrs. Elizabeth Mann, county welfare director who is in charge of the distribution of food and clothing at the court house headquarters, stated that two of the items most needed at this time are men's trousers and bed quilts. Captain Ferguson of the Salvation Army offered to supply the latter at once.

Up until Tuesday night of last week 772 families in the city had been furnished with bread by Mrs. Mann over a period of approximately one month. The bread was donated by various bakeries and some of it was a day old. In addition to the families, large boxes of bread were given to several church and charitable groups. Captain Ferguson reported that 1276 transients who seek shelter at the police station every night during the past nine weeks have been furnished with free coffee and rolls for breakfast.

Uncle Sam To Appeal Decision

Washington, Dec. 17.—(AP)—An "immediate appeal" to the supreme court from the decision by Judge Clark in New Jersey yesterday declaring the 18th amendment invalid will be taken.

The decision was reached at the justice department today after conferences between Attorney General Mitchell, Assistant Attorney General Youngquist, in charge of prohibition; Philip Forman, United States attorney at Newark; Howard T. Jones, assistant prohibition director, and other officials.

The justice department announced that "at the proper time" the supreme court will be requested to set the case down for early argument.

Meanwhile, Prohibition Director Woodcock moved to continue the enforcement of prohibition under the eighteenth amendment in New Jersey. In a telegram to Louis J. Tull, deputy prohibition administrator at Newark, he said:

"Do not be discouraged by Judge Clark's decision. Carry on."

GUATEMALA GOVERNMENT OVERTHROWN

PROVISION GOVERNMENT IS REPORTED TO HAVE BEEN SET UP EARLY TODAY

OFFICIAL MESSAGE

Rumors Verified By Message
From Secretary General To
U. S. Representative

BULLETIN
New York, Dec. 17.—(AP)—Private advices received today from Guatemala said that a provisional government has been set up there with General Manuel Orellana as provisional president.

Washington, Dec. 17.—(AP)—Minister Recinos of Guatemala was notified by message from his country today that the government of President Palma had been overthrown.

The message received was signed by Rodriguez Beleta, secretary general of the military junta described as now in control of the government.

The message said General Mauro de Leon, former minister of war, was killed in the fighting yesterday and that tranquility prevailed there today.

General Manuel Orellana, a well known military leader, has been designated as provisional president of the republic.

Only yesterday the American government formally recognized Senor Palma as chief executive of Guatemala.

The recognition was in the form of a message from President Hoover to Palma wishing him success in his new office.

Mexico City, Dec. 17.—(AP)—Private radio dispatches received during the night in Mexico City from Guatemala City said a revolt broke out there at 4 p. m. yesterday, with considerable heavy firing in the streets an hour later.

The Mexican Aviation company, in the absence of complete knowledge of the situation, instructed its pilot leaving San Salvador today to proceed directly to Mexico City, omitting his regular stop at Guatemala City.

The Guatemalan ambassador here said he had no report of a revolt, but members of the embassy pointed out that for some time there had been a strong opposition to the government of General Lazaro Chacon, who was forced to retire from the presidency last Friday when he suffered a cerebral hemorrhage.

It was believed that this may have come to a head after selection of Baudillo Palma to succeed General Chacon.

The government of the United States yesterday gave formal recognition to Baudillo Palma as president of Guatemala. Baudillo last Friday notified President Hoover of his succession to General Chacon.

H. S. JUNIORS PLAY BEFORE BIG AUDIENCE

GEORGE M. COHAN'S PLAY IS PRESENTED IN COMMEND-ABLE MANNER

'A PRINCE THERE WAS'

Entire Cast Displays Unusual
Talent; Specialties Between Various Acts

Entering into their particular characters with excellent interpretation, the members of the Junior cast presented their play "A Prince There Was" last evening at the Kankakee High School auditorium. Playing the role of Charlie Martin, Keith Smith showed fine stage ability as the leading man. Able supported by a number of perfectly portrayed characters including Ellen Broughton as Comfort Browne, a tiny adopted child and Jane Topping playing the leading feminine role of Miss Woods.

Displaying unusual talent in their character roles were Alvin Morris, as landlady of a New York boarding house, Edward Bladen, playing Mr. Cricket, an aged lawyer living at the boarding house, Melvin Foxan, as the editor of a magazine and Louise Craft, portraying an inquisitive daughter of the landlady. Also playing their parts in excellent manner were Elman LaRoche as a cheap movie actor, Bland, taken by Edward McGraw, Miss Vincent, well-played by Viola Menk, Eddie the office boy portrayed by Wilcox Taylor, Mildred Hoerman, as Della the maid, and Elido Regnier, as the messenger.

Playing before a large audience the Junior cast enacted one of the finest plays ever given on the high school stage. This popular play, one of George M. Cohan's best, was presented by a very able cast under the coaching of Miss Tull. The play which had all the complications of a drama and the catchy lines of a perfect comedy, was presented by a group of actors as capable as stage veterans.

Opening in the Plaza Hotel, the play progressed as Charlie Martin, a multi-millionaire disappointed with life, gave up to the hands of Fate. Comfort Browne enters his life and in sympathy for her and just for a lark he tries living in a boarding house. He came into contact with Miss Woods, Mr. Cricket, and his views on life as it is change for the best. Trying to help everyone and then being suspected and followed by two amateur detectives, provided entertainment for all. A happy finish and the regaining of the hero's health and happiness makes this play a successful and complete presentation.

Between the acts a dancing trio and John Schreffler furnished the entertainment. The tap dancing ability displayed by Evelyn Gallagher, Evelyn Eckstrand and Esther Blatt was fully appreciated by the audience. Again the youthful but well-trained voice of John Schreffler was heard and received with a great ovation by the audience.

Much credit is due to Miss Tull, whose dramatic knowledge has made many plays successful.

CHRISTMAS PLEA ISSUED TODAY BY SALVATION ARMY

The following Christmas plea was issued today by the Kankakee branch of the Salvation Army:

"It is needless to recite the countless instances of the worthiness of this cause. In many ways it makes life worth living for hundreds of unfortunate men, women and children annually.

"The Salvation Army opens its doors to every human being in need. No exceptions are made. Need is the sole consideration.

"The work done by the Salvation Army in Kankakee is well known and needs no explanation here. We are anxious that this Christmas be made a happy one for the poor and unfortunate of this city. Any one having donations of any kind: food, clothing or toys, please phone the Salvation Army, 2033, and we will gladly call for same."

KANKAKEE STORES TO REMAIN OPEN IN THE EVENING

Tomorrow evening marks the first evening during which all stores will be open in order to accommodate Christmas shopping. This change in store hours is made to accommodate those who work during the day and have no time to make their purchases. It also gives the shopper ample time in which to make their selections. You are urged to take advantage of these additional shopping hours and do your shopping early.

All the stores are attractively decorated and displaying a wide variety of merchandise suitable for Christmas gifts. Early purchases will assure the widest selection, inasmuch as the stocks of merchandise are more complete. There has been a decided upturn in business and stores are crowded during shopping hours. It is the consensus of opinion that the Christmas buying this year will compare very favorably with that of previous years. Remember, all stores will be open tomorrow evening in order to accommodate their patrons, and will continue opening each evening until Christmas.

XMAS PAGEANT AT 1ST BAPTIST CHURCH SUNDAY

"The Bethlehem Inn" which is the Christmas pageant to be given at the First Baptist church Sunday evening, Dec. 21st, at 7:30 p. m., by the members of the Sunday school is such an entirely new way of expressing the Christmas Story that everyone is urged to attend. Never before has such an impressive and striking service been presented in this community.

The Roman inn keeper, impersonated by Clyde Costello; the blind beggar maid by Nina Burr; and the Hebrew stable boy by Louis Marshall, are star characters and have devoted much time and practice to make their part in this pageant most effective. The characters impersonating the shepherds, wise men, women at the well, Mary and Joseph, are very well taken and promise real association with the ancient Biblical people and their suffering they endured prior to the birth of Jesus.

Elaborate stage settings hand painted scenes and buildings, special music and fitting costumes complete this fascinating pageant.

A complete list of the cast will appear in Friday evening's paper.

Little hope has been held for Dr. Edmonson's recovery the past few days. Diabetes, a gangrene infection, necessitated the removal of his right leg a week ago and since that time his condition has gradually become weakened.

BANQUET HELD FOR COLLEGE WORKING MEN

SELF-HELPING STUDENTS OF
ST. VIATOR HONORED AT DINNER LAST NIGHT

TALKS ARE GIVEN

Over One Fourth Of Student
Body Are Earning Part Or All
Of Their Educations

St. Viator college last night formally honored her student workers by a large banquet served in the college refectory. It was an opportunity for the school to take an accounting of her self-helping students, and an opportunity for the workers to express their appreciation of the institution's aid in the securing of a higher education.

It was discovered that over one-fourth of the student body is earning either all or part of their education, which is a very favorable figure when compared with that of other schools where the opportunities for self-help are equal with those of Viator. Because of the nature of the institution, and the fact that nearly all of the students are residents on the campus, outside aid in the obtaining of the means of education are quite limited, and it speaks especially well of the administration of the department at the school that so many young men have been placed in positions which do not interfere with their studies.

The banquet, which had been prepared under the care of Chef Russo, was served to the men at seven-fifteen o'clock in the southern dining hall of the refectory. Adhering to the platitudes that the way to a man's heart is through his stomach, the dinner left nothing to be wished.

The banquet was followed by a series of short talks by the students in which they expressed their appreciation to the college and to Mr. Edward Gallahue, who has charge of the department, for the help afforded them in their struggle for knowledge. Mr. Gallahue responded to a toast and sketched the history of the department from its inception in 1920 to the present day. He spoke of the success of the experiment, and his confidence in its auspicious continuance.

The speeches were followed by a number of musical selections by the famous Viator quartet, of Mr. Al Purlong, Mr. Ed Hunt, Mr. Don Anderson and Mr. William Todd. The session was concluded with the traditional Viator Loyalty.

The accounting at the banquet did not take into consideration the number of day students who are working in Kankakee and vicinity. All of those present were direct employees of the college, and represented a turnover since 1920 of over one hundred fifty thousand dollars. The consideration both the nature of the college and the enrollment, the record is believed to be one of the largest of any school in the nation.

CHAIN STORE HEAD SAVES THE LIFE OF KANKAKEE EMPLOYEE

The statement has been often made that chain store organizations are rather cold-blooded groups and their employees regarded as mere cogs in a vast machine. A complete refutation of this assertion has been demonstrated at the Title market at 370 East Court street.

One of the local market's employees, a young woman, was seized with an attack of appendicitis and an immediate operation was advised by physicians. The young woman, a comparative stranger in the city without friends or relatives here, did not have the money for an operation and hospital care.

Ed Schultz, manager of the store, telephoned to Frank J. Title, president of his company, at Chicago. Mr. Title ordered the girl to the hospital at once and said that he would stand all expense. The young woman is now well on the way to recovery, the operation last week having been a complete success. Mr. Title's prompt action probably saved the woman's life as she was in a critical condition.

Ben Lindsey Dismissed By A Magistrate

New York, Dec. 17.—(AP)—A charge of disorderly conduct against Former Judge Ben Lindsey was dismissed today by Magistrate Dreyer.

The court dismissed the complaint made out by a police officer charging the Denver jurist with interfering with a religious ceremony when he interrupted Bishop William T. Manning's assault on companionate marriage in the Cathedral of St. John the Divine a week ago last Sunday.

Then Magistrate Dreyer ordered a new complaint drawn to be signed by a representative of the church, and when nobody came forward to sign it, he threw the case out of court.

He rebuked Lindsey, however, in dropping the charge.

"You are a man of intelligence, you are a lawyer, you are a judge, you knew you were in church and you knew the law," Magistrate Dreyer told the proponent of companionate marriage.

"If you felt you were maligned you had your remedy. I always say if a man hurts my feelings I have the courts to go to. A church has a right to hold a divine service without interruption. The public should be given to know that dismissal of this complaint does not make it all right to interrupt church services."

Arthur Garfield Hays, Judge Lindsey's attorney, objected to the magistrate's remarks, saying he did not think Magistrate Dreyer would hold that there could never be sufficient provocation for a man to speak out in church.

"We hold, of course," Hays added, "that Judge Lindsey did not willfully interrupt a divine service."

The magistrate explained that his remarks had been addressed to the general public rather than to the defendant specifically.

Orbetello, Italy, Dec. 17.—(AP)—Twelve Italian seaplanes, led by General Italo Balbo, Italian air minister, left here at 7:45 a. m. today for Cartagena, Spain, on the first lap of a flight which the strident hope will take them to Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.

The departure was preceded by a brief ceremony in which the 56 officers and men who are manning the planes sang "The Hymn of the Aviators," new Italian air service anthem.

Twenty-four bags of mail were loaded into the planes, two into each ship, and General Balbo ordered his men: "To your posts." In a moment the motors began to turn and the craft, divided themselves into three squadrons of four planes each, took off on what is expected to become one of the epochal flights of world air developments.

MAJ. SHEPARD QUESTIONED BY THE STATE

PROSECUTION CROSS-EXAM-
INES ACCUSED ARMY OFFI-CER AT KANSAS CITY

"DIDN'T LOVE HIM"

Accused Man Contradicts The Statements He Issued At Time Of Arrest

Kansas City, Dec. 17.—(AP)—Major Charles A. Shepard testified on cross-examination today at his trial for the alleged poison murder of his wife that Mrs. Shepard had ceased to love him and that his purported statement to the contrary made to federal agents at Denver last spring was an "inaccuracy."

The prosecution, which charges Shepard poisoned Mrs. Zenna Shepard at Fort Riley, Kas., a year and a half ago so he might be free to marry Miss Grace Brandon, young stenographer of San Antonio, Tex., continued its efforts to show discrepancies between the statement and his testimony.

Shepard testified that he realized at the time there were inaccuracies in the statement taken at Denver where he was arrested, but reiterated he considered the matter "none of the officers' business."

"You say your wife didn't love you?" District Attorney Searles M. Brewster asked soon after Shepard resumed the witness stand this morning.

"She told me so," Shepard replied. Brewster then called attention to the statement made in Denver, in which Shepard was asked whether his wife loved him and he was quoted as replying, "absolutely."

"This," Major Shepard responded, "was another of several inaccuracies."

The army medical officer left the stand after about an hour of questioning.

Shepard was asked to explain why he had not used a stomach pump on Mrs. Shepard when she was stricken with the fatal illness.

"Mrs. Shepard was a confirmed alcoholic for years. I did not consider poisoning at the time," he said.

"You know if mercury was left alone in the stomach 20 minutes nothing could be done to save her?" Brewster continued.

"I have told you," Shepard replied, "she had no symptoms of mercurial poisoning."

Government witnesses have testified Mrs. Shepard died of mercurial poisoning.

Mrs. William W. Southard, wife of an army major at Fort Sam Houston, Texas, testified Mrs. Shepard was not a loving wife. The witness recounted a conversation with Mrs. Shepard when they were at Manila in 1922.

"Mrs. Shepard told me," Mrs. Southard said, "that she had had a very hard life. She told me she did not love her husband, that she married him as a way to help her mother and younger brother."

Mrs. Southard quoted Mrs. Shepard as saying, "I thought he was rich but I found he was not."

The witness told of a trip to China with a small party in 1922. Mrs. Shepard, she said, was drunk in bed three days at a Shanghai hotel.

Auto Accident

Mrs. Miles Edmiston of this place met with quite a thrilling experience when she was returning from Watseka one day last week. She was driving a Ford sedan and her son and nephew Gerald Birdsey were with her. As they approached the crossing on the C. and E. I. railroad east of the Jarvis school house they ran into a passing train. The public highway runs parallel with the railroad north from Pittswood, making a rather abrupt turn at the railroad crossing. It was probably due to this that the occupants failed to properly estimate the speed of the approaching train until too late but in all probability the accident could have been averted but in this emergency as so often happens the brakes failed to hold. The front of the machine was badly damaged but fortunate none of its occupants were injured beyond a shaken up and a scare.

Chebanse Team Goes on Annual Trip

The Chebanse basketball team with some rooters left town Friday noon for their annual visit to Sheridan and Pleasant View.

On Friday night the "Firemen" met defeat at the hand of the Sheridan "Vikings" in a hard fought and close game.

The game started with the "Noise-men" getting the tip and a basket. Immediately after Chebanse gets basket. Then Chebanse misses free throw but makes a follow-up shot. For the rest of the quarter both teams keep alternating in making baskets but Chebanse lead 8-6.

In the second quarter Sheridan gets the upper hand and makes 11 points while the "Firemen" makes 5 points. The first half 17-13 in favor of the "Vikings".

In the third quarter Sheridan continues dropping in shots from the center of the floor. The "Vikings" are good shots and count 2 points almost every time they shoot. The quarter ends 24-15.

In the last quarter Chebanse connects with two in a row but Sheridan comes back to count up the points also. The game ends 33-33 in favor of the Sheridan "Vikings".

About seventeen backers journeyed the one hundred miles to Sheridan. This shows the loyalty that the people of Chebanse had for their team.

After the game the players and a few backers journeyed to Ottawa to remain over night at the Pleasant View college. The P. V. students and officials are real hosts.

On Saturday night the "Firemen" met and defeated the P. V. team in an overtime game.

The game started fast but P. V. managed to get the first two points. Chebanse had possession of the ball the most during the first quarter, but luck was against them. Finally Chebanse gets going and both teams worked hard the rest of the game.

The score is 13-11 in favor of the "Firemen". Finally P. V. connect with a basket and the score is tied as the final whistle sounds.

During the overtime Chebanse scores a field goal and a free throw to win the game 16-13.

After the game the Chebanse travelers left for home arriving early Sunday morning after a splendid trip without any mishaps or accidents. We are grateful to Mr. Monson for making the reservation for this wonderful trip. As you know Pleasant View and Sheridan are the "Alamaters" of Mr. and Mrs. Monson. Character Not Always Shown

Nature, wrote William Mat. Nature, cuts queer capers with men's prizes at times, and compounds all the delusions of philosophy. Character does not put all its goods, sometimes not any of them, in its showwindow.

Expert Always in Demand

Application to the task at hand is a prime requisite of success. There is always enough to learn and know about any job to make that particular workman an expert in his line. And when he becomes an expert he need have no fear of the future.—Grit.
